REGARDING FUNDING SOURCES: HUD McKinney-Vento Continuum of Care

INFORMATION BULLETIN No. 60-24

ISSUED: August 30, 2024

RE: FY 2024 HUD Continuum of Care Notice of Funding Opportunity – Bonus Project

Through the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) 2024 Continuum of Care (CoC) Program Competition, the Arizona Department of Housing (ADOH) as the United Funding Agency and Collaborative Applicant for the Arizona Balance of State Continuum of Care (AZBOSCOC) expects to conditionally allocate up to an estimated $7.2 million through the CoC process. This amount includes an estimated $5.4 million in potential renewal existing grants, approximately $774,763 for new/bonus project(s), and approximately $968,454 for bonus projects that are dedicated to serve survivors of domestic violence (DV). Final award amounts will be based upon HUD funding availability as well as AZBOSCOC performance in the HUD CoC competitive national funding process. Projects must serve individuals and families experiencing homelessness in the AZBOSCOC geographic area that includes the 13 counties of Apache, Cochise, Coconino, Gila, Graham, Greenlee, La Paz, Mohave, Navajo, Pinal, Santa Cruz, Yavapai, and Yuma.

Eligible Applicants: Eligible renewal applicants are those current AZBOSCOC-funded programs with grant expiration dates in calendar year 2025. Eligible applicants for new/bonus project funding including the DV bonus funding include non-profits (including non-profit faith-based organizations), recognized Tribal Nations, and instrumentalities of state or local government regardless of prior CoC funding.

CoC and DV Bonus project applications are due September 24, 2024, by 5:00 p.m. and must be submitted through ADOH Special Needs Portal.
